

Task 1.6

Additive Edge

High School inspiration and outreach program

Additive Edge is a multi-week additive manufacturing entrepreneurship program focused on engaging students with education and career pathways in the advanced manufacturing sector. Students work in teams to identify a problem that, if solved, would benefit humanity; conceptualize an additive manufacturing (3D Printing)-based advanced product to address it; develop a business model around the product; and pitch it to a panel of representatives.

GET STARTED

Figure 1: America Makes AMNation Pipeline Portal landing page/Additive Edge High School Outreach Program